5                     individual is guilty but insane, with 6                     respect to a murder offense under 7                     Federal or State law;

8                     “(II) a verdict or finding that the 9                     individual is not guilty of such an of-10                    fense by reason of insanity;

11                    “(III) a finding that such indi-
12                    vidual is incompetent to stand trial
13                    under an allegation of such an of-14                    fense; or

15                    “(IV) a similar verdict or finding 16                    with respect to such an offense based 17                    on similar factors (such as a mental 18                    disease, a mental defect, or mental in-19                    competence).

20                    “(B) JOINT RETURN.—In the case of eligi-
21                    ble individuals filing a joint return where 1
22                    spouse is described in subparagraph (A), sub-
23                    section (b)(1) shall be applied by substituting 24                    ‘$1,400’ for ‘$2,800’.
